

Heidi Williams Disclosure Statement

- (1) As detailed in the opening footnote, the submitted paper received financial support from three sources:
 - a) The National Institute on Aging (NIA) and the NIH Common Fund, Office of the NIH Director, through Grant U01-AG046708 to the National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER)
 - b) National Science Foundation (NSF) CAREER Grant Number 1151497
 - c) The Intellectual Property and Markets for Technology Chair at MINES ParisTech
- (2) In addition to the sources listed above, over the past three years I have received more than $10,000 in research funding from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, the Hoover IP² Working Group at Stanford University, the Kauffman Foundation, the MacArthur Foundation, the Washington Center for Equitable Growth, and from NIA Grant Number R03AG043041 to the NBER.
- (3) I do not have any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of a relevant non-profit organization or profit-making entity.
- (4) None of my partners or close relatives have relevant disclosures.
- (5) No party had the right to review the submitted paper.