To whom this may concern:

I am writing concerning the paper titled “What students learn in economics 101: Time for a Change” of which I am, with Professor Wendy Carlin of UCL, a co-author.

Like Carlin, I serve as an unpaid trustee of the U.K. registered charity CORE Economics Education that produced the open access (free online) e-text, The Economy, that is discussed (along with many other texts) in our paper.

No party (other than the editors of JEL) had any right of review of this paper.

Best,
