

To the American Economic Association,

I have no conflicts of interest to declare for the submitted paper “Organizing Time Exchanges: Lessons from Matching Markets”. While working on this paper I have been an employee at Stockholm School of Economics and before that at University of Bonn (Post doc). Now I am working as a Lecturer at University of Essex. Parts of the research is funded by “The Jan Wallander and Tom Hedelius Stiftelse”. The research undertaken in this paper is fully independent from the above-mentioned organizations, which do not have any stake in the results of the paper. I have nothing to disclose in terms of memberships in relevant organizations. No party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

Sincerely,

Albin Erlanson, March, 2020
