

Disclosure Statement for AEJ Economic Policy Submission

Date: June 8, 2020

Author: Sarah John

Paper: Deterring Illegal Entry: Migrant Sanctions and Recidivism in Border Apprehensions

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

I received support from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security to do research related to that of this paper prior to its writing. However, I did not receive any support that directly supported the writing of this paper.

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

a. Department of Homeland Security (contract research work)

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A "relevant" organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

None.

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

No spousal or family-related potential COIs of which I am aware.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.