

Disclosure statement by Hanna Virtanen

Manuscript: “Labor market returns to vocational secondary education” by Mikko Silliman and Hanna Virtanen

I declare that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.

The project began in December 2016, while I was working for the ETLA (The Research Institute for the Finnish Economy). We were provided access to the data through Statistics Finland and signed on to the data-use and privacy agreements of the institution. Since the paper uses administrative data without identifiable private information, IRB approval was not obtained for this project.

Sincerely,

Hanna Virtanen
