JEL Disclosure Statement
August 4, 2020

1. I gratefully acknowledge salary support from George Washington University (Department of Economics and Elliott School of International Affairs).
2. In the past three years, I have received income and/or fees summing to amounts in excess of $10,000 from the following various parties for different research projects:
  - The United Nations
  - The World Bank
  - The International Growth Centre

It is my belief that these organizations do not have a financial, ideological, or political interest in the subject matter of this paper, but these institutions work in the field of international development policy, which is intrinsically political.

3. No other party had the right to review this paper before its publication.
4. The disclosures required above also apply to my close relatives and partner.
