Article “The Costs of Misaligned Incentives: Energy Inefficiency and the Principal-Agent Problem”

I had no financial support for this article and there are no interested parties. I obtained the data for this project while working as an intern at the California Public Utilities Commission. During that time, the California Public Utilities Commission provided funding through UC Berkeley for my graduate student tuition and stipend. The California Public Utilities Commission did not have the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

I received IRB approval from UC Berkeley for this article.
