

2 October 2024

Disclosure Statement for Steven J. Davis in Regards to “Sticky Wages on the Layoff Margin”

1. The authors received financial support for this research from the Booth School of Business, the Becker Friedman Institute at the University of Chicago, and the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland.
2. Other than the sources mentioned in item 1, I have received no other financial support for this research. Nor have I received financial support in the past three years from any other interested party, as defined in Point 2 of the AEA’s Disclosure Principles.
3. I hold no paid or unpaid positions in a relevant organization, as defined in Point 3 of the AEA’s Disclosure Principles.
4. I have no close relative or partner who has a financial or other interest in this research. I have no close relative or partner who has a position in a relevant organization.
5. No other party has a right to review this research before its circulation.
6. The survey effort described in this study (Entry Survey and Follow-Up Surveys) received IRB approval at the University of Chicago. The IRB Protocol Title and Protocol Number are, respectively, “Survey of Unemployment Insurance Claimants in the State of Illinois” and IRB 18-0871.