

AEA Distinguished Economic Education Award

2024 Award Recipient

Wendy Stock Montana State University

The recipient of the 2024 AEA Distinguished Economic Education Award is Wendy Stock, Montana State University. Professor Stock has made significant contributions to all areas of economic education for more than 25 years. Her scholarship includes a 15-year project studying many facets of and factors related to doctoral programs in economics. She has also written about trends in college majors and the impact of student-led recitation classes on learning. In addition to her outstanding research, Professor Stock is recognized as an excellent teacher and mentor and has a strong record of service to the discipline. Her service includes multiple terms on the AEA's Committee on Economic Education and Committee on the Job Market, seven years as an associate editor for the Journal of Economic Education, and nearly two decades as the director of the AEA Graduate Studies in Economics website.

About the Award

The annual AEA Distinguished Economic Education Award acknowledges sustained and impactful contributions to economic education including teaching, the development of curriculum and pedagogy, scholarship of teaching and learning (SoTL), mentoring, and service.

The award is conferred at the Committee on Economic Education's Friends of Economic Education Reception, which is held at the ASSA Annual Meeting.

Nominations

Information about the nomination and selection process is available at aeaweb.org/go/deea.

Annual Nomination Deadline:
October 1