

BE A PART OF THE FUTURE OF ECONOMICS!

Your AEA Membership Helps Elevate the Profession for All Economists

The AEA is committed to the advancement of economics and its enduring contributions to society. Your membership impacts the profession through mentoring programs, the publications program, advocacy, outreach, committee activities, and by supporting important initiatives like improving the professional climate in economics.

In addition, the AEA can be a significant part of your own success—whether you are a student, a seasoned scholar, or a practitioner:

- Build lifelong relationships with mentors and peers
- Access essential research and job resources
- Publish and present your research to colleagues
- Stay current with emerging research trends and thought leaders
- Gain meaningful support and advice on your work
- Collaborate on solutions to issues you care about
- Stay informed about issues affecting our profession
- Bring about change by influencing policy direction
- Expand your field expertise and professional visibility

Help support excellence in economics by joining or renewing your AEA Membership today!
